A. Chair’s Updates on Board Activities
Chair Lindsey had no updates.

A1. Presentation of a Kearney Cloak Replica to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs by King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club

Mr. Isaiah Kaʻaihue, speaking on behalf of the King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club thanked the Trustees for being allowed to be on the agenda to present the Kearney Cloak, which he considers a historic moment. He introduced several members who were joining in the presentation: Gladys Rodenhurst, Gladys Shiroma, Shelly Hao-Tamon, Madeline Lum. Mr. Kaʻaihue shared that after many years of discussion amongst the Club, they considered donating the Cloak to Bishop Museum and Hawai‘i Convention Center, but finally settled on OHA as the most appropriate option. They spoke to Trustee Waihe‘e who was instrumental in coordinating the gift from the King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club to OHA.

The following background information on the Kearney Cloak was shared:
   The original Kearney cloak was presented to commodore Lawrence Kearney, United States Navy, by Kamehameha III in 1843. Kearney was visiting Honolulu on diplomatic business.

   In 1974, the King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club undertook the task of creating a replica of the Kearney cloak, as part of a comprehensive arts and crafts education program. We selected the Kearney cloak because of its design, color and availability, being it was on display at the Bishop Museum.

   The Kearney cloak is of i‘iwi red, with a broad basal border, two spherical triangles and four semi-crescents of oʻo yellow. The front has narrow borders of yellow; while the neck band alternates red and yellow. The measurements are 96 inches in width, while the neck band alternates red and yellow. The measurements are 96 inches in width, 48.5 inches back length, 43 inches from length and a base measurement of 144 inches.

   This re-creation was a total club project. Many hands and approximately 8 months of time took to complete the cloak. Much of the work was done in the Manoa home of Marie and Louis Souza. Many club members participated by tying feather in bundles which was finally attached to the new that created this cloak. We would like to acknowledge the efforts of the club members, Walter Rodenhurst, Marie Souza, Louis Souza, Betty-Ann Lau, Ellen Noa, Mary Glennie Tagupa, Rona Rodenhurst, Rusty Rodenhurst, Gladys Rodenhurst, Dede Awana, John Awana, and many others.

   Upon completion, dedication ceremonies were held on November 2, 1975 at the Waikiki Shell, making it the first ahuʻula (Hawaiian feather cloak) of its kind made since 1817. The Reverend David Kaupu, of the Kamehameha Schools, blessed the cloak as witnessed by Mary Kawena Pukui, Dr. Donald Mitchell and Daniel Akaka and some 250 other people.
We would like to share this labor of love with the keiki of Hawaii in hopes perpetuating the aloha we feel for our proud culture.

King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club officially donated their Kearney Cloak replica to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs.

Motion

At 9:44 am, Trustee Ahuna moved, seconded by Trustee Waihee to officially accept the donation of the Kearney Cloak replica from the King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club to the Office of Hawaiian Affairs.

MOTION: [ ] UNANIMOUS [X] PASSED [ ] DEFERRED [ ] FAILED

Motion passed with eight (8) YES votes, no (0) NO votes, no (0) abstentions, and one (1) excused.

Trustee Apo hoped that when assets are transferred from OHA to the Governing Entity, this Kearney Cloak will be included.

Trustee Machado hoped that Dr. Crabbe would find a prominent place to display the Kearney Cloak. Dr. Crabbe reported that Facilities is already working on coordinating that and would probably go on the mauka wall of the Boardroom.

Trustee Hulu Lindsey expressed her thanks to King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club and noted her appreciation for and recognition of the love and aloha that went into making the Kearney Cloak replica.

Trustee Akana asked if the Cloak requires special climate control to preserve the feathers. Mr. Ka'aihue responded that they are discussing with a feather expert on strategies to preserve it in perpetuity.

Trustee Apoliona thought coordinating this gift would be part of Trustee Waihe'e’s legacy at OHA.

Trustee Waihe'e acknowledged Mr. Ka'aihue, who did much of the legwork to get this donation.

Chair Lindsey committed to being a good steward and caretaker of the Kearney Cloak replica.

Recess

Chair Lindsey called a recess at 10:00 am and reconvened the meeting at 10:10 am.

Mr. Pezzulo reported that as of the end of June, revenue is up by 28% and expenses are 8% below budget. Visitor count is up about 118%, which included a sales record in July. He also noted that they have a new garden, which will be dedicated to a recently-deceased Waimea Valley employee.

Trustee Apo asked about efforts to access the pre-arrival visitor market. Mr. Pezzulo responded that he now has a Digital Media manager who will also help with that.

Trustee Apoliona expressed her desire that Waimea Valley be connected to Kaka‘ako in its foundation. She believes both sides should keep it in their vision to be linked.

D. Ho‘okele Pono LLC Quarterly Updates

Ms. Mona Bernardino reviewed the quarterly updates with the Board. She clarified that PTAC is Federally-funded and that they focus on helping businesses in obtaining Federal contracts.

B. CEO’s Update on Ho‘oulu Lahui Aloha and OHA Activities

Dr. Crabbe called on Ryan Gonzalez and Kehau Abad to present on Mo‘oaupuni, a website for resources on Hawaiian political landscapes. Mo‘oaupuni is the history of succession of our government from the past, to the present, and into the future. Mo‘o refers to a succession or story. Aupuni refers to government. Au refers to a train of thought or opinion. Puni refers to the action of surrounding or covering around every side, as with the ocean surrounding our islands. Mo‘oaupuni seeks to provide resources from a wide array of perspectives in an open, neutral setting. However it is not a comprehensive source on every and all aspects of Hawaiian governance. It is but one hala‘au sharing information about Hawai‘i’s political history and current nation-building landscape.

Trustee Apo stated that he had a sense of urgency with Kana‘iolowalu and Na‘i Aupuni because there was no center of gravity for delegates, Hawaiians, or the general public – at least not that was opinion-free.

Trustee Akana thought this was a good idea. She added that it talked about primarily what has happened to Hawaiians in the past. She believes it is missing what the next step is, possibly listing OHA’s current efforts.

Trustee Machado noted this was an unscheduled presentation and that she wanted to move on to the Executive Session portion.

IV. EXECUTIVE SESSION

At 11:16 am, Trustee Akana moved, seconded by Trustee Machado, that the Board go into Executive Session to consider the following:
